

Prof. Aurelio CAPPOZZO

University Institute of Movement Sciences
Piazza Lauro de Bosis, 15 - 00194 Roma, Italy
Tel. 0636733518/522 - fax 0636733517
e-mail: cappozzo@iusm.it

Degree in Electronic Engineering at the Polytechnic of Milan (1970) and Philosophy Doctorate at the Bioengineering Unit, University of Strathclyde, Glasgow, UK (1982). Since 2000, full professor of Biomedical Engineering at the University Institute of Movement Sciences, Department of Human Movement and Sport Sciences, Rome. Former member of the Executive Council of the European Society of Biomechanics and President of the International Society of Biomechanics. Honorary member of the Latvian Society of Biomechanics, of the Czechoslovak Society of Mechanics and of the European Society of Biomechanics. Former member of the Editorial Board of the Journal of Biomechanics, Gait and Posture, the Journal de Biophysique et Biomécanique, Clinical Biomechanics, and of The Journal of Sports Medicine and Physical Fitness. Member of the Editorial board of Technology and Health Care. Co-editor of three volumes with international circulation. He has organised four international congresses. Research activity mostly in the human movement area in collaboration with national and international institutions. He has participated in research programmes funded by NATO, CEE, the Italian Ministry for the University and Research and Istituto Superiore di Sanità with co-ordination responsibilities.